

May 25, 2001

applaud Robert Inglis and ask my colleagues to join me in recognizing his steadfast commitment to our community.

TRIBUTE TO FATHER HOWARD
LINCOLN

HON. JOE BACA

OF CALIFORNIA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Friday, May 25, 2001

Mr. BACA. Mr. Speaker, this June, we will be honoring Father Howard Lincoln, on the occasion of his leaving the Saint Catherine of Siena Parish, and also on the 10th anniversary of his ordination for the Diocese of San Bernardino.

Father Lincoln was ordained a Catholic priest in 1991 for the Diocese of San Bernardino. He served as Associate Pastor for Saint Catherine of Alexandria Church, Riverside; Priest Moderator for Our Lady of Fatima and Saint Bernardine's Churches, San Bernardino; and as Pastor of Saint Catherine of Siena Church, in Rialto for the past six years. He has been the Director of Communications and the Spokesman for Bishops Straling and Barnes for the past nine years and has served on numerous diocesan committees for the Diocese of San Bernardino.

Father Lincoln is a friend, a mentor, a guide to my family, to his parish, and the community of Rialto. He is known throughout our area for his outstanding sermons and his work as a fine educator, counselor and community leader. I have been privileged to know Father Lincoln, and have found him to be a mentor, a scholar, and an inspiration.

But Father Lincoln is also very down to earth, enjoying recreational pastimes. His golf game is so exceptionally good that he was appointed Official Golf Pro for the Vatican in 1997! A highlight for me was when we had a chance to play the Congressional Golf Course and Robert Trent Jones.

In furthering the mission of his parish to build the community through worship, education and service, Father Lincoln has been a gifted spiritual leader, a man of vision, virtue, and wisdom. His sermons have inspired and uplifted, causing me to reflect on the words of the Scripture:

Now unto him that is able to keep you from falling, and to present you faultless before the presence of his glory with exceeding joy, To the only wise God our Savior, be glory and majesty, dominion and power, both now and ever. Amen. Jude 24-25

Many times, we seek guidance, so that we may know the right way in our personal lives, our careers, our public lives. This has been true for me as a husband, father, grandfather, and public official. Father Lincoln has always been there in times when I have sought spiritual guidance, so that I might know the power and the comfort of the Lord in making decisions that are fair, just, and right.

I am very pleased to have known Father Lincoln over the years, and wish him every success in his new posting. I offer my best wishes, and ask for the blessing of God to mark this occasion.

EXTENSIONS OF REMARKS

EASTERN QUEENS DEMOCRATIC CLUB HONOREES

HON. GARY L. ACKERMAN

OF NEW YORK

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Friday, May 25, 2001

Mr. ACKERMAN. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to ask all my colleagues to join me in recognizing Chester (Chet) Szarejko, Cantor Doreen Gammel, Frank Biordi, Joanna Laba, and Mohammed Saleh, who will be honored by The Eastern Queens Democratic Club at its Annual Awards Dinner on May 31, 2001.

Chet Szarejko has demonstrated strong leadership qualities as the Democratic District Leader of the 24th Assembly District in Queens County, NY. Chet also serves as Political Activities Chair of the Polish American Congress, which represents the more than one million Americans of Polish descent in the New York Metropolitan area. He has met with many Polish leaders, including Lech Walesa, and has worked to organize the Polish community in New York politics. He recently testified at the Holocaust Restitution Committee and helped to organize several Holocaust programs. Due to his activism among Americans of diverse backgrounds, members of the Southeast Asian Community have nicknamed Chet the "Queens Political Ambassador." He has been awarded citations from various immigrant communities and has received local acclaim as a champion of immigrants and new Americans.

Cantor Doreen Gamell studied music and philosophy for years before finding her true calling. When Cantor Jacob Taron asked her to substitute for him at a Friday night service in Port Washington, she found the perfect home for her voice, mind, and heart. Several years of study and several student pulpits later, Doreen Gamell became the Cantor at Temple Shalom in Floral Park. In addition to her duties at the synagogue, Cantor Gamell has been recognized for her work instructing developmentally challenged adults in the study of the Jewish texts and music, and in ritual and Torah cantillations.

Frank Biordi, President of Biordi Construction Company, has long been involved in community and business affairs in Queens, and has been a strong supporter of various local and national civic organizations. Frank has been a generous benefactor of the SIDS Foundation, Cancer Care Society, Deepdale Gardens Boulevard Bank Drive, Bayside Little League, and New Hyde Park Little League.

Joanna Laba is the Executive Director of Savoy at Little Neck, a world-class assisted living facility which opened in the fall of 2000. Her responsibilities include: developing and maintaining operational systems, maintaining a maximum census, developing initiatives consistent with resident-care needs, maintaining the memory support program, and supervising admission criteria practices. Joanna has also developed and managed support groups for seniors and their caregivers, including those concerning Alzheimer's and other memory-impairing diseases.

Mohammed Saleh was born and raised in Bangladesh, and received his Bachelor of Science in Pharmacy from the University of Dhaka. Mr. Saleh has served his community in several capacities: as President of the Long Island Muslim Society, Former President of the Empire State Pharmaceutical Society, and Founding President of the Bangladesh-American Pharmacists Association. He currently owns three pharmacies in the New York Metropolitan Area and is an active member of the Pharmacists Society of the State of New York and the National Community Pharmacists Association.

Mr. Speaker, I ask all my colleagues in the House of Representatives to join me in honoring these exceptional Americans as they are honored by The Eastern Queens Democratic Club, for their outstanding service and tireless dedication to the community.

HAPPY 50TH BIRTHDAY TO JONATHAN FRIEDMAN

HON. HOWARD L. BERMAN

OF CALIFORNIA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Friday, May 25, 2001

Mr. BERMAN. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to pay tribute to an outstanding individual and a good friend, Jonathan Friedman, who is celebrating his 50th birthday on June 3, 2001. Jonathan is a wonderful person, full of integrity and honesty, dedicated to improving the world around him, and an all-around good guy.

Jonathan and I have been friends since the early 60's when we worked together in the California Federation of Young Democrats. He was only in high school, but even then he was extremely interested in politics. In the Young Dems, he was a master debater on the Resolutions Committee and was known for providing a fresh and interesting insight which challenged previous policies of the Young Democrats. Jonathan's contributions to the Democrats for Israel Club and the California Democratic State Central Committee are equally impressive and indispensable.

Jonathan has enjoyed a distinguished career since receiving his M.B.A. at Wharton Graduate School, where he majored in finance. His educational background, which includes a B.A. from UCLA, enabled him to enter the business world in 1975 as a securities analyst and later as an Assistant Vice President at Equitable Life. His interest and acumen in the financial arena continued to grow and led to a position with the Ford Foundation in New York. He made his way back to Los Angeles to serve as an investment consultant at the J. Paul Getty Trust. After a successful stint there, he turned his skills and savvy to the retail market by starting his own jewelry business, Miller Gems.

I frequently turn to Jonathan for analysis of legislative proposals in tax and financial matters. His counsel in these areas (and many others) has been invaluable to me.

Jonathan also finds time in his busy schedule to be of service to the Jewish community in Los Angeles and nationwide. He serves as a member of the Jewish Community Relations Council which fosters equal protection and justice for all, and he is a long-time member of the American Israel Policy Action Committee. Jonathan is also a volunteer board member of the Friends of the UCLA Library.

9785